

Spoontastic Baby has been released on „Baby Day“ (Mai 2nd 2017) for Android

Today is the big day. After 13 months of despair, effort, care and hope, our cute Spoontastic Baby is born.

Spoontastic Baby wants to be fed, but watch out: the little cutie defends itself with a number of surprising tricks against your feeding efforts. Fortunately, you have a few ways to persuade the baby to eat, too.

From now on, the gaming app is available on the Google Play Store:

The day of the publication is Baby Day (May 2), on which all babies of the world are to be celebrated.

This is why Spoontastic Baby also has a separate Babymode. The special Babymode for very young players offers feeding-fun with an assisting auto spoon and a particularly well-behaved baby. An ideal diversion when mom and dad want to face the real challenge.

To celebrate the birth of Spoontastic Baby, we have released a launch trailer:

We hope you cannot resist the charm of SpoonTastic Baby :)

About Spooonastic Baby

Spooonastic Baby is a free game app where you feed a sweet baby with a spoon by tilting your device.

As time proceeds the levels get harder and the little devil is beginning to show some bad manners unheard of for any baby before. Will you become a worldwide top feeder?

Baby attacks

The baby defends itself against the food on the spoon with awesome and funny special attacks:

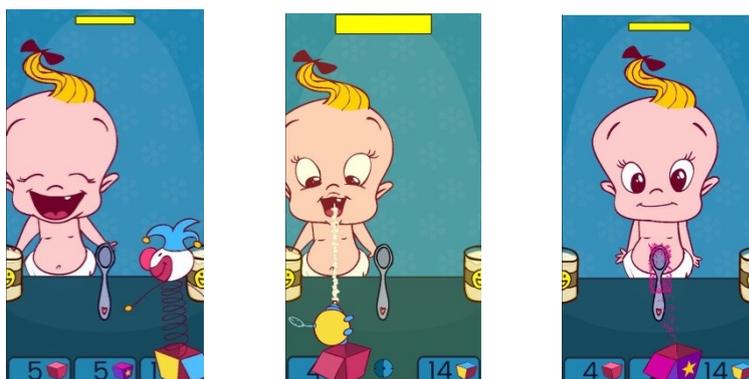

It can idle or jump around, spit water, eat the spoon, spit fire and attack with laser eyes.

Player counter measures

But you are not helpless. There are also special feeding-techniques available:

You can use the Food Cannon to get a great feeding progress. You can also use the Magic Spoon which helps you to solve the baby attacks. Or you can activate the Jack in the Box to make the baby laugh out loud so you can feed it instantly.
